Research

Services supporting the institution’s research activities.

Research Administration Systems

Systems used to secure and facilitate research funding and compliance.

Research Data Services

Services that support the data life cycle.

Research-Specific Computing and Advanced Applications

Computing and storage resources that support research that uses specialized or highly intensive computation, storage, bandwidth or graphics.