Known Issue - Spell checker inconsistency in Blackboard

Issue
When using intricate nested ordered and unordered lists in Blackboard, the spell checker stops catching spelling errors about halfway through the page.

Known Issue
This is a known issue reported to Blackboard that has already been fixed in a specific future release but that release is not yet available at the University.

Workaround
The user should create content in a word processing application, like Microsoft Word and copy and paste the content into Blackboard.

Need more help? Contact the ITS Service Desk.