2-Step with Duo provides an additional layer of protection to your UAlbany account by asking you to verify your identity using a one-time code when logging into campus IT services. This helps ensure you are the only person who can access your account, even if someone steals your password.