Wiki Formatting Macros - Div

Functionality
The Div macro wraps content in an html div tag with optional classes and styles. The div tag is a non-visual (by default) element that can be used to apply additional properties to the content contained within it.

Recommended Replacement
Use a native table with cell formatting or a Panel macro.

Additional Information
Confluence Tables
Confluence Panel Macro

Need more help? Contact the ITS Service Desk.